

Unity in Diversity

With the Seventh CEO Conclave on telecom 2.0 attracting over 100 senior delegates from SAARC countries, the region has got a unified voice

“The event was really excellent. However, I think, the groups/committee need to interact in between conclaves to come out with more interesting thoughts on crucial issues”

—PK Garg, member, Radio Regulatory Board, ITU, India

“I, on behalf of KT Corporation, sincerely thank you and your team for the very effective conference as well as your hospitality”

—SP Jerath, president, operations KT Corporation, India

“I just wanted to convey my sincere thanks to you for providing an opportunity to participate in the SAARC Operators CEO Conclave 2008”

—Anuj Kumar Srivastava, DGM, MTNL, India

“It was another great learning and networking experience and is bound to benefit the telecom business in the region”

—Amitabh Singhal, founder ISPAI, India

“Nextgen is all about collaboration and co-operation and this event is aptly enabling that environment”

—TV Sriram, VP-technology, Bharti Airtel, India

“I am attending your conference since the beginning and every year I find the quality of speakers improving”

—Rajesh Chharia, president, ISPAI, India

“It was indeed an exciting event. Such events help industry experts to share various issues and related subjects”

—Sanjeev Chachondia, CEO, BPL Mobile, India

“It is always good to see industry’s leading CEO’s on one common platform. Best wishes for your future endeavors too”

—Kuldeep Goyal, CMD, BSNL, India

“Thanks for giving me the opportunity to attend the CEO conclave. Hoping to see and meet all of you at next year’s CEO Conclave”

—Yazad Boga, head, IT/ITeS/BPO verticals, Tata Communications, India

“It was a wonderful opportunity to interact with people from the SAARC countries. Also, I have made good friends and wish to stay in touch with them”

—Elango T, CEO, AP Circle, Bharti Airtel, India

“Many thanks for taking all the trouble during the CEO Conclave 2008. I think the arrangements were excellent. Hope to join you in future also”

—Nizam Uddin Ahmed Chowdhury, chief project coordinator Dhaka Telephone Company, Bangladesh

“I strongly recommend continuation of the format for next year’s event and would like to recommend Maldives as a potential location”

Pradeep Dwivedi
VP, corporate, marketing & product management
Tata Teleservices, India

“Thanks for the opportunity to network with people from the telecom in the SAARC region. Very good recommendations have emerged from the special group discussions”

—Ananda Raj Khanal, director and secretary, Nepal Telecommunications Authority, Nepal

“The sheer hard work and hospitality shown by the CyberMedia team are highly appreciated. Let us hope and try that this conclave achieves its objectives”

—Ahmad Nadeem Syed, director Interconnect & Regulatory Economics, Mobitel, Pakistan

“This event provides an excellent platform for networking and sharing each other’s experiences”

—Sultan Ul Arfeen, chairman, Telecard, Pakistan

“The conclave was really interesting, However I suggest you should involve more policy makers and regulators from next time”

—Satya N Gupta, chief regulatory advisor, BT Global Services, India

“Thanks very much for inviting and hosting us. We are looking forward to meeting you next year also. We are ready to extend all our assistance if you want to host an event in Dhaka, Bangladesh next year”

—Mir Masud Kabir, managing director, Mango Teleservices, Bangladesh

“We really appreciate your efforts in making the event very lively and enjoyable. Congratulations for making the event a success.”

—Rifath Mohamed, marketing manager-mobile Dhiraagu, Maldives